

NATURAL TRAVERTINE · OPAL DOME

RECHARGEABLE TRAVERTINE TABLE LAMP

Oriva

A little light, a moment of calm.
A cordless glow on a ring of raw travertine.

Cordless Rechargeable · 3 light colors

THE OBJECT

Oriva is a softly glowing white dome resting on a sculptural ring of raw beige travertine, with its natural pores and mineral markings. Cordless and rechargeable, it moves from bedside to dining table to a sheltered patio, with three light colors to set the mood.

Where it works

Dining tables. Set it mid-table with no outlet or cable to hide.

Bedside tables. A soft light you can carry from room to room.

Shelves & consoles. Adds a point of light where there is no outlet.

Charging

First use. Charge it fully before the first use.

USB adapter. Use a properly rated USB power adapter for your region.

Keep it dry. Not for rain or immersion.

Care

Travertine. Dust with a soft, dry cloth. Avoid water and household cleaners.

Dome. Wipe gently with a soft, dry cloth. Avoid abrasive cleaners.

Natural stone. Pores and markings vary, so every lamp is unique.

Answers before you ask

Is it cordless?
Yes. It is USB rechargeable, so it works without a cable or an outlet.

Will it work in the US?
Yes. It charges over USB from a standard adapter and has North American conformity.

Is every stone identical?
No. Natural travertine varies in pores, markings and tone.

Can I use it outdoors?
On a sheltered patio or covered table, yes. Keep it out of rain and never immerse it.

Can I change the light color?
Yes. The integrated LED offers three selectable light colors.

Can I replace the LED?
No. It is integrated and lasts about 50,000 hours.
